Incendiarism Again.

There did be but little doubt but the dirty scoundrels in our city have the work of incendiarism. When the scoundrels are in not yet known; but we would urge upon the police the importance of ferreting out the guilty parties. In the [illegible] and citizens must be on the careful in their precautions or the watchful over their property. Above all, immediate steps should be taken to put the alarm bell on the Court House steeple in proper working order forthwith, and a set of signals agreed on for the direction of the fire department.

HOW LONG MUST WE ENDURE THIS?

On last Sabbath, the Irish Catholics who inhabit almost exclusively that portion of the North Division of the city, lying between Black Hawk street and the North Township Line, assembled in large numbers as is [illegible] to the neighborhood of a Protestant house of worship near them, for the purpose of annoying those who attended it. The crowds going to this church were more or less assembled and stamped by the rabble crowd, and after service, as the congregation dispersed, they were unanimously set upon by the rowdies and severely pelted with sure ballplaces of ice, and such other missels as the crowd could collect. Several persons were severely and indiscriminately attacked and pelted by these demi-savages, whose only ground of complaint against them was that they were "decent hereafter." How much longer shall we endure these things? Have we not suffered enough? Let the people answer!

The Association Lectures.

The course of lectures before the Young Men's Association will [illegible] this week. They have been throughout patronized by our citizens to an extent that must be highly gratifying to the Association, while it demonstrates, as we have before said, that the city of Chicago will not be satisfied with second rate talents, and mediocrity, and that liberality, as enterprise, that lies before them, as [illegible] yet, they may [illegible] on.

We have heard it intimated that the regular course would probably be followed by a few extra features, to be delivered by gentlemen whose services it was impossible to obtain in the early part of the winter. If this be so, we would suggest that negotiations be opened into with Wm. Bross, Esq., of Philadelphia, for one or more lectures. Mr. Bross is [illegible] of the celebrated James G. Birney, and is a young man of splendid education, brilliant talents, and eminent intellectual powers; and we are confident that a lecture from him would be, as say the [illegible] in point or merit to none that have been delivered here this winter.

Dr. Guy's Lectures.

It is now positively announced that Dr. Guy will deliver his first lecture before the Young Men's Association, on Thursday evening next, subject—"Timely Advice." The lecture is the first that requires a ticket of the few retiring to the [illegible] of Dr. Guy has a high reputation both as a scholar and a speaker, a treasure of [illegible] may be looked for.

Grand Masonic Ball.

Chicago Encampment, No. 1, I. O. O. F., announce that the society intend to celebrate the day of their anniversary, which falls upon the 22d of February, by a ball. The day is a [illegible] occasion, with pending through the [illegible] of the day, and a supper [illegible] during the day, and a supper [illegible] evening, by which they shall be the more [illegible] to [illegible] the day. They can display their new banner, which [illegible] by Mrs. Jones, a lady [illegible] of the order, [illegible] & Alcott [illegible] Committees [illegible] and ornamental [illegible] to [illegible] the [illegible] of Chicago have always extended the greatest [illegible] to Rebro Encampment, and [illegible] of the [illegible] of the Know Nothings [illegible]

Common Council.

At the meeting of the Common Council on Monday night, Ald. Gilmore offered an order for the [illegible] of a [illegible] of the [illegible] of Randolph street, [illegible] and Mr. Canning [illegible] which was passed, and which resulted as follows:

First Ward—Fifth City Hotel.

Second Ward—Fifth Engine House No. 1.

Third Ward—Fifth Engine House No. 2.

Fourth Ward—Fifth Engine House No. 3.

THEATRE.

His Impersonation of [illegible] Mr. Forrest, last evening, were perfect gems. It was particularly pleased with the latter. It will prove a strong card for the [illegible] of the week.

We are glad to see that the [illegible] of paying [illegible] are appreciated by our citizens. Her [illegible] are very large and of a high order of [illegible]

The Fire on Stanley Place.

Of which we gave a brief account yesterday, originated a little before eleven o'clock in the [illegible] shop of Frederick Stanley, at the corner of Milwaukie av. and Third street, two or three miles from the Court House. In a short time two or three adjoining buildings caught fire, and the whole four were totally destroyed. No effective assistance could be rendered. The alarm was given to the firemen with the usual promptness on such occasions, (that is, when the fire was at its height, and the lurid glare of the flames illuminated the air,) and they promptly repaired to the scene of action. The distance, however, was so great, and the fire had already made such progress, that it was impossible to stop it until it had consumed the buildings above named. They were all frame buildings, and were owned by Mr. Decker; Frederick Stanley, John Lyman, Joseph Johnson, and Otis Tufts. Mr. Stanley's house was insured, Mr. Stark's was partially insured to the amount of $800. Mr. Johnson had no insurance. The whole loss cannot be less than $1500, and may reach $2,000. It is due to Col. Donnelly and the Fire Department generally to say that they made every exertion to reach the fire in time, and did all in their power when they arrived. The City Marshal, Mr. Knight, deserves commendation for his successful endeavors to prevent pillage and preserve order and discipline.

FIRE.

The alarm of fire last evening at 7 45 was from the city, and the engines which came rushing out in hot haste went back in spot intime.

CORONER'S JURIES—INVESTIGATIONS IN CHICAGO.

Coroner Enoch Jones, Esq., held two inquests upon the bodies of two infants found dead in different parts of the city. The first of these cases was that of a male infant. It was discovered, quite dead, about noon time, by the Canal, south of the city, a few rods from the main road. The verdict of the jury was, that he died from some cause to the jury unknown. The child when found, was by a most [illegible] made for the purpose.

The other inquest was a similar case—the child, however, being a female. The verdict of the jury was the same in both cases. It was found in the yard front of [illegible] residence, on Adams st., a few doors from Clark. It was the impression of the jury in both these cases that the children were living when placed where they were found, but having no evidence before them of sufficient strength, they were compelled to [illegible] as above. The case of [illegible] of mystery and crime which has had its [illegible] in these two cases of infanticide, will [illegible], never be divulged until the day which shall make all things plain. What consistency [illegible] to [illegible], on the age and world in which we live!
